Fifteen hundred Rush county people living outside of Rushville were entertained at the county dinner party here today.

The Rush County Farmers Association and the business men of Rushville played hosts, and to say that they were pleased with the outpouring of people was placing it mildly.

The way Rush county farmers looked to Rushville by the score for the Farmers Day events was a revelation to the officers of the farmers associations and the committees of business men who had the arrangements in charge. The maximum number of tickets, twelve hundred, for three dinners, was all issued long before noon and many others were issued by making notations on the backs of candidates cards and slips of paper.

The guests were served by the Ethiopian Sisters at the K. of P. building, by the Ladies Aid society at the M. E. church in the Behrman and by the women of the Main Street Christian church in the basement of the church, which was exclusively for the women. Three hundred tickets were issued for each of these places and the remaining number obtained their dinners at the three restaurants and the Scanlan hotel.

The program this afternoon consisted of meetings for men in the court house assembly room and the court room, at which addresses were made by George I. Christie, head of the extension department of Purdue University; Charles E. Watkins of Juncie, district governor of Rotary clubs, and H. C. Reid of Pendleton, practical farmer, who was sent to take the pledge of John G. Brown, president of the Indiana Federation of Farmers associations, on the program. Mr. Brown was unable to come on account of illness.

The women were entertained with program at the Graham Annex auditorium at two o'clock this afternoon. It consisted of selections on the violin and harp by the Shell-Sisters of Indianapolis, vocal numbers by Mrs. Hazel Moor of Chicago, readings by Miss Francis Oak of Indianapolis and Grecian and Russian costume dances by little Miss Dorothy Hill of Indianapolis.

The guests at the dinner party registered by townships and received their dinner tickets. A space was allotted for each township, with a sign back of the table designating each township. The township officers of the farmers association were in attendance, striving for new members in the organization. Some townships registered only members and men visitors, while others registered the women as well as the men.

The actual registrations were 946, and the difference between this number and the 1200 tickets given out represents the number who received tickets but did not register.

Mr. Lux also addressed both crowds this afternoon in the court room and assembly room. A Posey township orchestra provided music in the lower corridor of the court house until the meetings began.

Mystic 1308
Keeps Curious
Folk GuessingOne Bold Person Ventures Opinion
That it is Patent Medicine Advertisement and Guesses Are as Numerous as There Are People Here Today.

"Are you one of 1308?" These were the words, printed on scores of signs, which confronted the person who entered the lower floor corridor of the court house today.

"One of 1308," was the significant label that hundreds of farmers wore on their coat lapel.

The curiosity in every human was immediately aroused.

"What's it all about?" was the common inquiry.

"Must be a patent medicine advertisement," ventured a bold person who was not afraid to utter an opinion.

But he was mistaken—and so was everyone else who made a guess. It was a part of the campaign of the Rush County Farmers Association for new members. The officers of the county association and the township presidents conceived the idea that today would be an ideal time to recruit some new members, and how well they carried out the idea could be seen from the way membership cards were being signed at the township booths.

Applause For Rushville For Offering Gymnasium and Sending Team to Root For Milroy

Milroy and Anderson township entertained the high school basketball team last night at a banquet held in the gymnasium of the school building, and the team that represented this district was highly honored and praised for their showing made at the state tournament.

Chester Richey, captain of the team, praised Greensburg and Rushville school officials for having offered their gymnasiums for practice and asked for a round of applause for the Rushville sportsmanship in offering the gymnasium and for sending their team to Bloomington to root for the Milroy team. He said there was no hard feeling between Rushville and the Milroy teams. The crowd applauded vigorously the spirit shown by Rushville.

It has been common talk around Milroy for some time about securing an enlarged gymnasium or a new school building and this talk ran high last night at the banquet when nearly 500 people had gathered there to honor the team.

The following from the Milroy Press will be of interest:

"Crystallized sentiment here for an enlarged gymnasium of standard size was indicated by various citizens last night in their talks at the school building, following the pitch-in-dinner party given in honor of Milroy's district champion basketball team.

"Nearly 500 people attended the supper which was served in the gymnasium, a large round table for Continued on Page Two Second, Elbridge, Jackson township.

Third, John Huffard.

"The best corn show ever held in Rushville."

This was the verdict of William A. Alexander, who conducted the show in connection with Farmers Day here today, and it was the unanimous sentiment of many other farmers who were consulted.

There were sixty-nine entries in the show, and all of them ranked high, in the opinion of Peter J. Lux of Shelby county, national corn champion, who judged the corn and awarded the cash premiums, amounting to $125.

The competition was keen in every class, but it was warmest in the class for ten ears of yellow corn, in which 350 ears of corn, or thirty-five individual entries were made.

There were one hundred ears, or ten entrants in the class for ten white ears and five for the champion white ear. For the champion yellow ear, there were nineteen entries.

The twenty ears of Shelby county corn with which Peter J. Lux won the national championship were on display in a case near where the corn was being shown in the east end of the corridor on the lower floor of the court house, and were the center of interest all morning.

Mr. Alexander had ten beautiful ears of yellow corn exhibited in a case in the sheriff's office, but he did not enter his corn for the premiums due to the fact that he was conducting the show.

As an example of how close the corn graded, Mr. Alexander said that only a quarter of a point separated the ten ears of yellow corn.

BIGGEST EVER HELD--CHRISTIEHead of Purdue Extension Says Get Together Meeting Sets Record
in State.

SUGGESTS FARMERS PICNIC

Emphasizes Importance of Better Relations Being Established—
Purpose of Organizing.

"One of the biggest get together meetings of this character ever held in Indiana."

This was the opinion of George I. Christie, head of the Purdue extension department, before he addressed the two audiences here for the Farmers Day meeting this afternoon.

"I would like to suggest that the farmers of Rush county could not show their appreciation better than by inviting the business men of Rushville to a big picnic next summer," he said.

"Get acquainted with your neighbor—you may like him," was one of the thoughts emphasized by Mr. Christie in his talks this afternoon. He laid particular stress on the importance of better relations between the country and town and dwelt on how meetings like the one today developed a better spirit.

"The meanest things we say about people we don't know," he declared. "We have the greatest fear for things we don't understand, and when we come to know people and institutions, we deal with them fairly."

"My idea is that such a town as Rushville or any other town in Indiana is here to serve the people, both country and town. Our town people are trying to serve in an honest, fair way. If the farmers withdraw their support from a town, it will fail. The best results can be secured by the fullest co-operation."

"I can not go back to Purdue and say to the young men the farmers of Indiana are organizing and spending big sums of money to save a few cents on miscellaneous purchases. They have a bigger object than this. These organizations are for the development of agriculture. The problem of today is to obtain a larger and more satisfactory market for farm products."

BEGINS VOTING ON

IRISH RESERVATION CALLED

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 18.—After planning a display to get a final vote on the peace treaty without much more delay, the senate began voting on the remainder of the reservations today.

In rejecting, 27 to 48, a reservation proposed by Senator Reed, providing that the United States keep to itself the right to decide what question effects national armament and interest and withhold all such questions to the jurisdiction of the league of nations.

Following defeat of this reservation, Reed offered another providing that the United States assume no obligation to use military or naval forces under any article of the treaty for any purpose. This was also rejected, 17 to 52. The senator offered another with almost the same language, which was also defeated.

READY FOR ANY EMERGENCY

American Troops Along Rhine Are Prepared For Anything.

(By United Press.)

Paris, Mar. 18.—American troops along the Rhine are ready for any emergency that may arise from the situation in Germany," Major General Allen, their commander, declared in an interview at Coblenz, received here today. "The meeting of the allied chiefs called by Marshal Foch was arranged before the revolution in Berlin and therefore was not occasioned by it," Allen said.

"The question of allied control beyond the Rhine bridge heads was not discussed. I don't think the Von Kapp move had any reflection along this line, but could not tell how far it was going to extend."

TO FACE DEMAND
FOR WIDE REFORMEbert's Government Will be Confronted With Requests Many Governmental Changes

RADICALS TAKE ADVANTAGE

Force Kapp Resignation Due to Determination No Revolutionary Government Shall Stand

(By United Press.)

London, Mar. 18.—The government of Frederick Ebert, imperial president of the Germans, will face widespread demand for drastic industrial and governmental reform when it returns to Berlin, today's dispatches indicated.

The resignation of the revolutionary group headed by Dr. Wolfgang Von Kapp, which seized power in Berlin March 13, was forced not so much by pressure from the Ebert group as by determination of the radical element that no revolutionary government should stand in Germany, some dispatches said.

There was every indication that the independent socialists and Spartacists will strive to their fullest extent of their power to force greater representation in the government, demanding a reorganization with participation of their representatives.

Leaders of the coalition of independent socialists and communists which forced the revolutionists out and were reported to have declared a proletarian, will not recognize the working man's forces for Ebert's profit but will demand power for itself.

Eugene Schiffer, Ebert's vice-chancellor, was reported in temporary charge of the Berlin government.

The general strike called by the Ebert group to defeat the revolutionaries has been called off.

The arrest of Von Kapp and his principal supporters has been ordered.

One dispatch quoting information from Von Kapp supporters, said coalition of independent socialists and communists had decided to set up a government all their own and had selected a chancellor.

London said that the impression prevailed here that the allies may demand expulsion of the former kaiser from Europe and thought that the Dutch government would grant the demand.

NEEDS FREEDOM OF ACTION

Washington, Mar. 18.—Herbert Hoover today declared the peace treaty should be accepted "so long as final form gives us freedom of action and room for constructive development of peace." He also said that the growing stand of international antagonism cannot be moderated until the United States joins the league of nations.

MAY ISSUE BONDS
WITHOUT HEARINGState Board of Tax Commissioners
Plan to Eliminate All Unnecessary Procedure

CHANGE TO BE MADE AT ONCE

News Received Gladly Here Because
New Methods Will Do Away
With the Red Tape

If there are no objections from any taxpayers, petitions for authority to issue bonds for roads or any other public improvements in Rush county, will be granted without a public hearing under new rules for the administration of the tax law, which the state board of tax commissioners has formulated and decided to put in effect this month.

The news of this proposed change in the policy of the state board was received with rejoicing here, especially among county officials, because it eliminates much of the red tape which has surrounded the administration of the law. It has been estimated here lately that such a plan would be evolved by the board.

Tax levies and bond issues will be approved without hearing evidence, other than presented in the petition and a budget, unless a taxpayer objects. Then, if objection is made, a public hearing will be held in the city, town or taxing unit affected by the petition.

This new regulation by the state tax board, it is believed, will overcome much of the objection heard as to its broad powers. The taxing units will in the future practically have their own say-so regarding tax levies and bond issues, the taxpayer being the one to offer objections.

The rules relating to tax levies, and bond issues, it is believed, will greatly reduce the administrative work of the state tax board and will at the same time increase the responsibility of the local taxing units. The rules reserve to the state board the power to order a hearing on any bond issue or tax rate, if it has reason to believe that the public interests would be best subserved by that course.

The state tax board began last November notifying petitioners for bond issues that it would not be necessary for them to come to Indianapolis unless a hearing was necessary, and if it was deemed necessary the petitioners would be notified and the hearing would be held in the county from which the petition came.

The rules are to be promulgated under Section 336 of the state tax law of 1919. Under that law valuations of property in Indiana were greatly increased last year, the law providing for true cash valuations. The law at the same time placed a general limit on tax levies, the purpose being to protect the public against the payment of greatly higher taxes, which might have resulted from raising valuations without at the same time restricting tax rates.

The state board of tax commissioners had its hands full last year in passing on hundred of tax rates and bond issues.

Now a new standard of tax rates as well as property valuations has been established. Valuations are higher and tax rates, as a rule, correspondingly lower than before the new tax law came into effect.

The transition period of valuations and rates has been passed and it is regarded by the state board of tax commissioners that from now on there is less occasion for detailed supervision and control by it, and hence the board will adopt a general rule that it will approve petitions for bond issues and tax rates unless there is objection by a taxpayer. In other words, a taxing unit will be entitled to a judgment in its favor on its application, unless a taxpayer objects.

As to bond issues, the rules to Continued on Page Three

REVIVAL TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Converts at Glenwood M. E. Meetings Estimated at Twenty

The revival which has been in progress at the Glenwood M. E. church since two weeks ago last Sunday, will close next Sunday. It is estimated that approximately twenty have been converted during the meetings, which are being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Taylor, pastor of the Glenwood circuit. Big crowds have been attending the services which have been increasing in interest daily.

Quarterly conference will be held at Glenwood next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Dr. J. M. Walker, district superintendent. Dr. McFall of the First church at Connersville, will preach at Orange, the other town in the circuit, next Tuesday evening.

USES PICTURE AS AN ILLUSTRATION

"Lost Sheep" Provides Theme for The Rev. George S. Henninger at St. Paul's M. E. Church

APPLIED TO MEN AND WOMEN.

Vultures Hang Over Those Afflicted With Sin as Pictures Shows Them Over Sheep

The sermon of the Rev. Geo. S. Henninger at St. Paul's Methodist church last night was from the old theme of the "Lost Sheep", and illustrated by a very fine picture of the theme, which Dr. Henninger has in his home. He said:

"A sermon without illustrations is like the home without pictures." "Some pictures can be looked upon without exciting any especial interest. Others are immediately appealing. There are at least six very notable somethings in this picture. The artist, true to life, throws upon the canvass the picture of a sheep in middle life. Children are lost and old folks are lost, but somehow or other we have forgotten the perils of the middle age. The Psalmist speaks of 'the destruction that wasteth at noon day'. Middle life has its perils more than youth or old age.

"The second thing in the picture shows this poor wandering sheep attempting to feed upon a very narrow ledge of rock high up on the mountain side. One misstep and it would drop to its death. The question immediately came to my mind, 'How on earth did that sheep ever get into that place?' Many a man and woman with character all gone, friends deserting, have cried out in the bitterness of remorse, 'How did I ever get in this place?' But I noticed little clumps of green grass which was the tempting something to the sheep which led it on to its perilous position. How true it is with life. The little tempting bait which leads on and on until at last the victim is in so narrow a place that it is impossible of themselves to turn around.

"Again I noticed that the artist made no attempt to picture the bottom of the ravine. It was so deep that it was black. Thus it is with sin. When a man or woman begins to fall, there is no limit to the depth of the fall. It is perfectly amazing to think of the depths to which a human being can sink. It is likewise amazing to think of the heights to which a human being may ascend through Divine help. But over this canyon I could see two vultures winging their way, waiting for the poor sheep to fall. There are human vultures today. Young men who would as quickly take the purity of your daughter's life, and then laugh as they watched her fall. There are men so low, in whose breast there is no seeming humanity, vultures upon human society. There are money vultures, vultures of every description. But I notice at the head of the canyon, that the light is breaking. It seems as if daylight is beginning to appear, and may it not be true that there is daylight for the poor lost soul.

"Last and best of all, the thing which attracts my attention most, leaning over the edge of the cliff, with one hand holding on to the rock lest he should fall, and with the other reaching far over the side with his shepherd crook, ready to save the poor lost sheep from destruction, is the Good Shepherd. The sheep will never fall as long as the shepherd is near. Christ is the good Shepherd. He says, 'I give my life for the sheep'."

The New Suits for Spring Will Walk Straight Into Women's Hearts

Truly have the tailors outdone themselves. To beautiful fabrics and unusually clever styles has been added a skill of workmanship that makes for suit perfection.

Exquisitely moulded shoulders—graceful collars that hug the neck closely in back—wonderfully correct under-arm shaping and bust lines—plus all the finishing touches the woman of fashion appreciates.

We have never seen more admirably made suits.

Coats, mostly in the finger-tip length that is so generally becoming—perfectly plain, or adorned to please you, with silk pipings, braidings and rows of finest self-tucks—many with long, flat collars, squared or rounded at the lower ends.

Skirts of the simplicity the smart woman prefers.

"Concurrent Power"

We know that the leaders of the "drys" and of the "wets" believe to be the meaning of "concurrent power" as employed in the eighteenth amendment—the one interpreting it as permission to the States to make the amendment more but not less binding, the other interpreting it as permission to the States to modify the terms of the amendment within their own borders. What we do not know is the Government's interpretation, for its officers differ in their explanations. For example, Judge Reelstab of the United States District Court at Trenton, N. J., says: "The use of the word 'concurrent' gave the States no power to engage in a legislative conflict with Congress. The States possess power granted by this amendment as they possess all other concurrent powers; dominant when they alone exercise it; subordinate when it is exercised by Congress."

On the other hand Solicitor General King, in defending the amendment against the suit of complainants before the Supreme Court of the United States, made the States primary rather than secondary in the matter when he said: "The amendment does not interfere with the functions of the States; but gives the Federal government power to act with the States in enforcing prohibition, and results from a general demand upon Congress to assist dry States in enforcing prohibition."

Obviously the sooner the Supreme Court precisely defines the "concurrent power" of the States and settles the matter beyond question, the better will be the prospects of peace in this connection.

Civilization's Influence

There is a difference in mankind, but in one respect we are nearly all of the same kind—that which we have ceased to admire we seek to discard. In Africa women are the property of their husbands, on a par with his cattle. If she ceases to be attractive to him or fails to bear him children he beats her to death if he feels like it, while ordinary beatings are merely an incident of the day. In civilization we employ a more refined method of cruelty. If we lose our love for them we lash them with our tongues, or get a divorce, or an affinity. In time, however, mankind may learn to seek the

Nothing is so good for you as Vinol, our Cod Liver and Iron Tonic. It invigorates the nerves and creates strength.

Here is Reliable Proof:

Union Hill, N. J. — "I suffered from a nervous breakdown, was anemic, thin, had a stomach trouble and could not eat, sleep or work. I had doctor'd without benefit until one day I read about Vinol, and after taking one bottle I began to improve. It strengthened my nerves, gave me a good appetite, and I sleep well and feel better in every way." — Mrs. CHARLES WEST.

The reason Vinol is superior to any other remedy is because it contains the oldest and most famous body-building and strengthening tonic known to medicine.

Irishman Who Didn't Know Green Rejected by Marines

Cincinnati, Mar. 18.—An Irishman who can't tell green when he sees it was rejected for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps here today, for defective color vision.

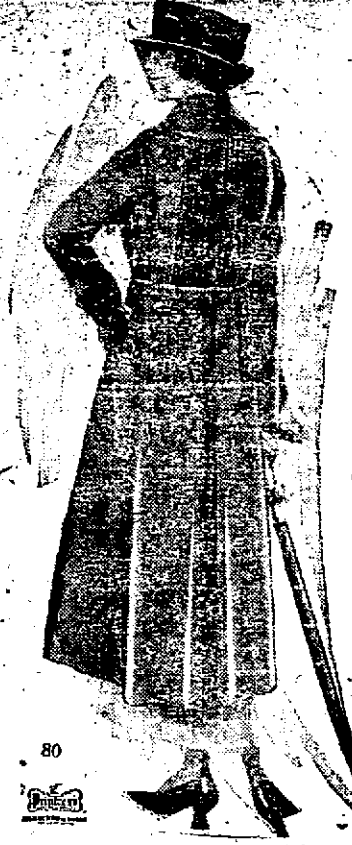

James Patrick O'Hara, born in the County Cork, insisted on picking brown skeins of yarn when told to select the green ones.

"What color is the grass," ventured the examiner, "isn't that green?"

"No," replied the color-blind Irishman. "Its color is not green, people call it green because it is young and tender, but its color is brown."

Birds Which Pay Way in the County

The state department of conservation has prepared a series of sixteen articles on insectivorous birds which combat voracious insect pests that annually collect a tax of many thousands of dollars by destroying fruit and cereal crops. These articles are written for the benefit of farmers so that these friends of the farmers may be protected and allowed to carry on their valuable work.

The indigo bunting is commonly called the "indigo bird", and sometimes the "blue canary". It is about five inches long and has a wing extent of about seven inches. The male and female are quite unlike in appearance. The general color of the adult male, as his name indicates, is an indigo or cerulean blue, changing to a bluish green in certain exposures to the light. The adult female is smaller than the male and of an olive color above, sometimes tinged with a greenish-gray on the rump and upper tail coverts; beneath dull whitish, more or less washed or tinged with olive; buffy on chest, wings and tail darkest. The indigo bunting spends the summer with us coming north the last of May and returning south in August and September. It is one of our most delightful and persistent singers. It is well these birds be protected, for they are most useful because their food consists of small weed seeds and insects. An examination of the stomachs of nineteen disclosed eighteen had eaten weed seeds. Another test revealed that 78 per cent of some examined had eaten canker worms.

RUSHVILLE TO HAVE BALL CLUB THIS YEAR

Ans Elect Officers at Meeting Wednesday Night and Will Sell Stock in Organization

MOTHER MEETING TUESDAY.

At the meeting held last night in the court house, it was decided to have a baseball team in Rushville this season, and another meeting will be held Tuesday night to perfect the organization and start the sale of stock. A committee was appointed last night to make arrangements for a lease on the site for the proposed park.

Mark Purcell was elected president and Earl O'Brien, secretary and treasurer. Practically all of the players were on hand last night and talked over the prospects of having winning team. All of the talent will be Rushville men, and no outside players will be bought. It is said that there are two good pitchers now, and they will be secured, and the rest of the team will be composed of the best players in Rushville.

The backers of the plan would like to see all baseball fans at the meeting Tuesday night, and help make the meeting a success. A team manager will also be elected Tuesday.

TONIGHT & FRIDAY

MOTHERS ARE INTERESTED IN HAVING EFFICIENT TEACHERS

By MRS. ROY WAGGENER.

You remember his first day at school? How you tried to swallow the lump that would rise in your throat as you gave his little hands and face that extra scrub? And how your fingers trembled as you fastened the buttons on his little frocks? You gave him a tender earrings and said, "good-bye" with a smile, then went into the house where you could weep unrestrained.
Perhaps you went to school with him that first time, held tightly his little hand and told him how lovely school would be and what fine splendid things he would learn there.

You were met by a lovely, sweet-faced teacher, who took your lad's die's hand, showed him where to hang his hat and gave him a little desk for his very own. You meant to stay awhile but you couldn't, so you hurriedly excused yourself.
(You hated emotion in public). The sweet faced teacher assured you in her motherly way, as she looked into your eyes brimming with tears, that he would be alright. And you knew he would. Of course he would.
But that did not lessen the tug at your heart strings. A great change had come into his life. In a way he had passed out of the home. Now he would begin to look upon a new world, through different eyes, no longer the mothers, but the teachers. Do you wonder that mothers want fine splendid teachers?

That same morning a hundred or more mothers felt the same tug at their heart strings, as this nondes-cript little army entered the ranks of our schools to train for citizenship. They came from every walk in life, having had different opportunities, of all temperaments, each a law unto himself, in fact, almost as many types as children—all dumped, as it were, into a veritable melting pot, our public schools—this mass to be trained by our teachers into men and women of power, capable of filling places of responsibility and worth in the world's work. A big job? Yes. But not an unglorified one.

The child finds living in the world a very different thing from living in the home. It is the function of the teacher to help him find in this new relation, obedience, honesty, truthfulness, industry, courage, ambition, courtesy, purity; all these and much else besides "reading, writing and arithmetic, make up the curriculum for this little citizen of the world. That the teachers opportunities and duties are legion is appreciated by no one more fully than by the mothers in Rushville. With all proper apologies to the fathers, the fact remains that to the mothers and teachers is given the training of the youth of the land, than which there is no greater task. Good or bad it is ours, and in the main we are proud of our job.

Like all small salaried folks, the teacher has been almost engulfed by the rapidly rising tide of the high cost of living. We know that they have planned, schemed, made over and done without to make ends meet. But they have stayed by the stuff. It has been beneath the dignity of most teachers, preachers and mothers to strike. Truly too much has been at stake. It is not because the community does not appreciate properly the value of the services of her teachers, that they are underpaid. The school board would take real delight in giving to each a salary commensurate with worth. They haven't the money. The school purse which has always been lean, is very inadequate for times like these. The high cost of living found it wholly unprepared.

When a merchant finds it necessary to raise the wages of his clerks he does it. The public pays. When a factory finds it necessary to increase its wages to labor, it does it.
The public pays. When the community finds it necessary to increase the salaries of its teachers, it should do it. The public will pay.

It is only to efficient, consecrated teachers that we are willing to trust our children. It takes money to employ and retain men and women of this type. The community should stand back of our teaching personnel in this substantial way, and it will when it fully realizes the situation. School and state officials are now seeking ways and means to reimburse the school pocketbook, and the public is catching a new vision of school needs.

We have already learned to go down deeply into our pockets for candle, soap bones and shoe strings.
Let us learn to go down into them even more deeply for this other very vital thing—efficient teachers.

Solomon admonished us in getting to get wisdom. Having gotten wisdom let us not fail to put first things first.

Government and City Health

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive homemade remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver and bowels

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

The Big Flatrock Christian church will have a fish fry and oyster and ice cream supper at their church Friday night, March 19. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Earl C. Moore entertained the members of the Loyal Women's class of the Main Street Christian church last evening at her home in North Harrison street. The regular business session and program was held. Twenty-eight members were present for the meeting. At the close of the program the hostess served light refreshments.

The Men's Bible class of the First United Presbyterian church will hold a social and business meeting at the United Presbyterian parsonage tomorrow evening. At this meeting the annual election of officers will be held. All the men of the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

Ten members of the War Mothers were present at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon, when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. David Stoops in North Morgan street. The regular program was carried out and during the business session the by-laws of the club were discussed and it was also decided that the members would pay $1 a year instead of paying by the month.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stewart entertained Sunday at their country home south of New Salem with a two course dinner, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Stewart of Arlington, Mrs. Mary Holton and daughter of Henryville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daubenspeck, and two sons of near Rushville, the Rev. and Mrs. Talmage Defrees, Miss Edna Bever, Stanley Stewart, Homer Roberts and Miss Ruby Stewart.

The Daughters of the American Revolution were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John A. Tittsworth in North Perkins street. At the business session much business was transacted. Following the business hour Miss Mary Sleeth gave an interesting talk on "Woman's Suffrage." Several guests were present for the meeting, the only out-of-town guest being Mrs. Rhoda Offutt of Shelbyville, who is the house guest of Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol.

What was regarded as the best function of the Social Club season, the formal dancing party last night, was attended by more than thirty couples. The music was provided by an orchestra of Indianapolis, known as the Irresistible Jazzers, and was especially popular with the dancers. Several guests from out of the city were present, including Miss Dorothy Frazee of Butler college, Miss Pearl Martin of Peru, Miss Helen Frazee of Western college, Mrs. Francis Moor of Chicago and Floyd Kirklin of Muncie.

Mother, May I have some of the New~ Karo Maple?

ONE of the reasons why housewives are so delighted to know that the old, reliable Karo is now to be had with the flavoring of purest maple sugar is because it solves the "High Cost of Maple Syrup Problem."

The new Karo Maple Flavor has the delicious taste of new maple syrup; it also has the rich body so desirable in a table syrup.

Compare the flavor and cost of Karo Maple Flavor with other syrups. You'll then know why it is so popular.

Be sure to ask your grocer for Karo Maple Flavor in the Green Can. It is guaranteed to please you or your grocer returns your money.

Hitchcock said the Gerry reservation was in entire harmony with the league of nations and the attitude of the senate which last June adopted a resolution expressing sympathy with the Irish people to obtain self determination.

TO ORGANIZE WOMEN

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 18—Plans are being completed here at Wood headquarters for a statewide organization of women to promote the candidacy of Leonard Wood at the May primary. The women's organization will be patterned after that for men under Harry Hagan and Mrs. Curtis Hodge of Indianapolis will direct the women's activities.

ARE TAKING ARMS TO MEXICO

Gen. Murguia Charges That Rebel Forces Received Ammunition

(By United Press.)

City of Mexico, Feb. 25 (By Mail)—Charges that foreign oil steamers have transported ammunition and arms to the rebel forces in the Tampico district are contained in a report submitted to President Carranza today by General Francisco Murguia, commander of the federal troops operating in the oil region.

In many instances, according to General Murguia, "persons on the outside" must be considered responsible for the murder of Americans, because they enable the bandits to obtain contraband supplies.

Murguia announced in his report that in order to prevent attacks upon Americans, he had established a patrol service along the coast from Port Lobos to Tuxpam, at points where the outlaws generally operate.

CAPITOL CHATTER

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 18—The Senate chaplain, Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, was caught napping the other day when the Senate met at 11 A. M. instead of noon. When Reverend Prettyman arrived at the usual hour to deliver the opening prayer, he found the senate busy in treaty debate.

However, an eloquent prayer appeared in its proper place in the Congressional Record the next morning. Inquiry disclosed that he had hunted up the official stenographer and dictated a prayer for the record.

Life isn't a path of roses for elevator boys in the Senate where the Senators have preference in being carried up and down regardless of less distinguished passengers.

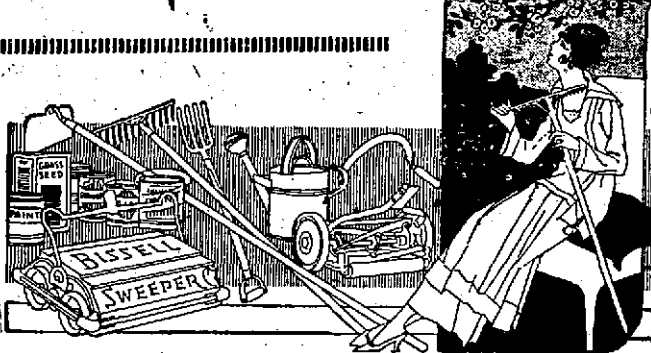

Senator Kellogg, Minnesota, was riding up with some newspaper men the other day, and busy talking with them, neglected to call his floor. He apologized to the elevator boy who had reversed his car midway.

"Oh, that's all right, senator," the boy said. Then trying to apologize for not having thought to ask the senator where he wanted to go, the boy added: "I didn't even notice you were on the car."

Senator Kellogg enjoyed it as much as the newspaper men did.

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money
Unless Allenru Completely Ban-

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about it. Your druggist has been appointed agent for Allenru in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.—(Adv.)

SOME REVISIONS NECESSARY

Recommends Tax on Undistributed Profits of All Corporations
After Jan. 1, 1921

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 18.—Federal income taxes will not be reduced until after 1922, Secretary of the Treasury Huston today informed the house ways and means committee.

He declared, however, that revision of several of the present federal taxes should be made and revenues adjusted to make up for the loss the government will sustain as the result of the supreme court decision that dividends paid in stock are non-taxable.

To make up for the loss in revenue made by the supreme court decision knocking out stock dividends, Huston recommended a tax on the undistributed profits of all corporations after January 1, 1921.

Excess profit taxes also cannot be reduced until 1922, the secretary wrote the committee.

Huston proposed that the present excess profits tax, is graduated from 20 to 40 percent, be changed and flat taxes on profit in excess of the distributed earnings, be substituted.

He suggested that the rate of this flat tax be 25 percent for 1921, 20 percent for 1922 and 15 percent for 1923.

7,400 BOOKS ARE RETURNED

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 18.—Colorful tales of adventure and snappy best selling love stories were the soldier's literary friends in France. None of these are in the books which Indiana sent its fighting men and which are slowly being returned to this state. Few of them survived the struggle. They died the death of popularity.

Scientific, historic, philosophical and theological volumes are being returned however. Their leaves are not thumbed and their covers are not broken. They survived.

Approximately 7,400 books provided voluntarily for the army, marine corps and navy libraries are being returned to William J. Hamilton, secretary of the public library commission here. The majority of the early arrivals were turned over to the Indianapolis public library. Other shipments will be given the state library and the state traveling library.

There has been little fiction received thus far and the American Library association has written that those yet to be shipped are nearly all technical books.

A Connersville newspaper in relating an automobile accident near Rushville Sunday afternoon, when the machine of Chester Stevens of that city, turned over after it struck a culvert just east of here, states that while the machine was turned over in the ditch, someone removed two of the tires. Mr. Stevens was accompanied in the machine by his wife and two children, who escaped injury. They went home after the accident on a traction car and a garage truck from Connersville returned Monday for the machine, and it was then discovered someone had stolen two of the new tires from the machine.

FOR PRESIDENT

SENATOR HARDING

Ohio, the Mother of Presidents, presents another distinguished son for the consideration of Republican voters in the person of Senator Warren G. Harding. His life has been one of strenuous toil and endeavor since the day he was apprenticed a printer. Early manhood found him a valiant editor and, like the beloved McKinley, a vigorous defender of the political principles of Abraham Lincoln. Editor Harding's virile Republicanism gained him fame beyond the confines of the Buckeye state as far back as 1896, since which time he has belonged not more to the Republican party of Ohio than to the Republican party of America.

Senator Harding is now serving his first term in the United States Senate, having been elected in 1914 by the re-united Republican and Progressive parties, his majority being more than one hundred thousand.

Harding As a Business Man

One of the leading business men of the nation says this of Senator Harding: "Warren G. Harding is essentially a business man. He has the business instinct. Beginning with nothing, and building up a big business of his own, and then taking extensive interests in all of the other big enterprises of the city in which he lives, has put him in close touch with the problems of production, transportation and distribution of both manufactured articles and foodstuffs; and it has brought him in close touch with the problems of capital and labor."

"Now, as never before, this country needs a president who has had practical business experience and who can bring us back to safe and sane thinking and safe and sane living."

Is a Man of McKinley Type

In many respects Mr. Harding resembles that other favorite son of Ohio—William McKinley. Both were of Scottish descent. In presence, in manner of speech, in ability to judge of men, in careful, painstaking mastery of detail and tact in bringing together opposing factions on some common ground, there is a remarkable similarity. Mr. Harding is first of all a patriot. He believes in America; in its form of government; is proud of her past and hopeful for her future; and he believes that our highest obligation is to our own, and that the problems which vitally concern us are domestic and not foreign.

Opposes Compulsory Military Service

In a speech at Columbus, Ohio, February 23rd, Senator Harding said: "We might well pledge ourselves never again to be so unmindful of our national defense. We ought to have an ample navy, as our first line of defense. We ought to have more than keep apace—we ought to lead the world in the development of aviation and be stronger in the air than we are on the sea. We ought to have a stronger army than we have ever known in peace heretofore, and we ought to have all the young manhood of the republic know the benefits of discipline and physical betterment that come of military training, but it ought to be VOLUNTARY, not compulsory; supported by the government in camp, in the national guard, in schools and colleges. It ought to be made so popular and so helpful that young America would seek it as a privilege rather than accept it as a duty of compulsory requirement."

NEED LESS THEOLOGY AND MORE KNEEOLOGY

Evangelist Stewart at Salvation Army Says There Are Too Many One-Cylinder Christians

COLORED QUARTET TONIGHT

A good crowd turned out last night, at the Salvation Army and heard Evangelist Stewart give a heart-searching talk. He used for his text, "Ye shall receive power after the Holy Ghost has come upon you." He started by saying that some people were afraid of Ghosts but the Holy Ghost would take all the fear out of them.

"Power!" he continued "what good is an engine without fire, or a Ford car without power. We must have the fire to have the power. There are too many one cylinder Christians in this world, and as soon as they come to a hill they get but a little way up and then they backslide. What good is an interurban car without the trolley on the line? Disconnect it, and you stop going, and have no light, or heat. We need power to see God—God in everything. Some people the only time they see God, is when they look in a looking glass. Less supper rooms and more upper rooms."

Some people are always praying God make us one. The Bible plainly says, he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are one. You may not live in the same house as I do (And I am not sure that I would want you to) but it is no new thing for me to see brothers living apart."

Tonight the 2nd M. E. colored quartet will render a number of special evangelistic songs, and a half night of prayer will be held. Prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, 621 West Ninth street at 9 a. m. tomorrow. There was one conversion last night.

Amusements

Double Bill at Princess
Can you imagine peppy Dorothy Gish suppressed for like in a sleepy Southern town that closes up shop every evening at nine o'clock? In "Mary Ellen Comes to Town," which comes to the Princess today and tomorrow, the vivacious comedienne starts out as a chauffeur at the local soda fountain and plays checkers with the "hicks" who congregate there. But, of course, that too slow for Dorothy, and when a pretty actress lady gets stalled near town in the one single train that runs daily, Dorothy gets the inspiration to go to New York and make a hit in dramatics. She doesn't score the expected sensation, but does encounter some exciting adventures and wins herself a rich husband, who by the way is a native of the drowsy town from which she herself springs.

Sure Death to Corns

"Get-It" Makes 'Em Lose Their Grip and Lift Off Painlessly.

The first thing "Get-It" does when it lands on a corn or callus is to snuff out the pain. Then it shrivels the corn or callus and loosens it.

Soon, it is almost ready to fall off. You help it just a little by lifting it off with your thumb and finger. You don't even feel it, because there is no hurt left in it. Millions have proved it the cleanest, surest, safest and most pleasant method.

"Get-It," the never-failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover costs but a trifle at any drug store sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Rushville and recommended by F. B. Johnson & Co. and Hargrove & Mullin and F. E. Wolcott.

CHALMERS

A car for those who have an eye for beauty and an ear for rhythm

To stand and look at a new Chalmers is to admire it. For it has a grace of line, an elegance of finish, a care for little details that compel your attention.

that is pleasing to the ear. There are no engine throbs, no vibration, no apparent effort. Ho-spit and Ram's-horn prevent them. Those two products of master intellects refine the gasoline, "digest" it, "break up the lumps," and make it easy for that magnificent engine to supply that rhythm of power which so quickly denotes a Chalmers.

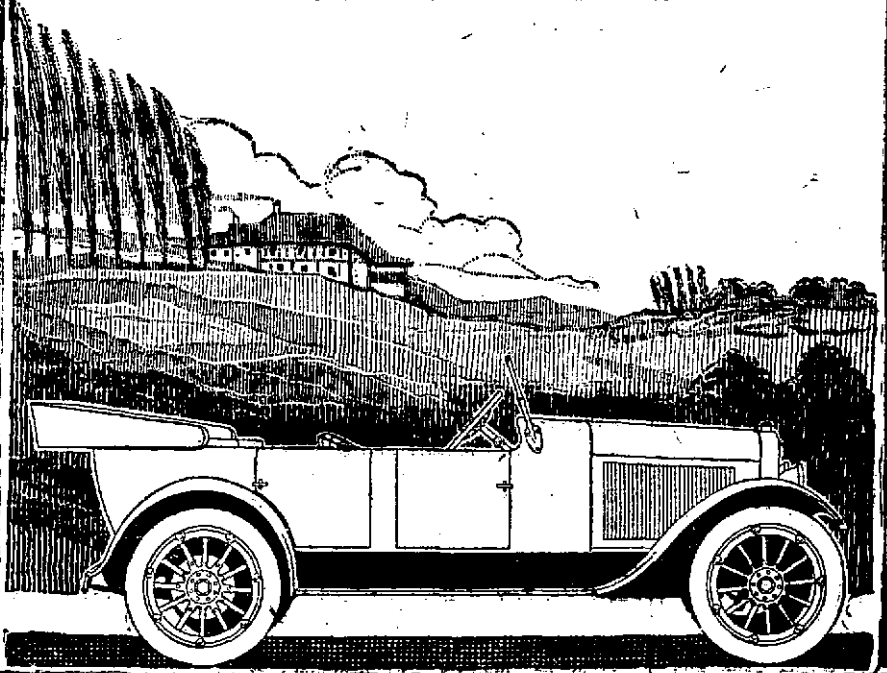

The new coach is low in appearance, and therein lies the secret of its beauty.

You can sit in the car and feel yourself at rare ease.

Start the engine, turn loose the power stream, accelerate it, play with it as you will, you cannot help but detect a smoothness, a perfect rhythm

Drive this car once, and you, too, will say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

the picture and Rhea Haines and Raymond Cannon are also in the cast. It was directed by Elmer Clifton.

In addition to the Gish picture, Larry Semon will be shown tonight and tomorrow in "Dull Care" a two reel comedy, which is said to be up to his regular standard of comedy.

Harry Carey at Mystic

"A Gun Fightin' Gentleman," Harry Carey's newest production, booked for the Mystic Theatre on Friday shows this popular Universal star in a role that his admirers like best to see him in. Carey and Jack Ford, his director, are responsible for the scenario, thus proving their ability to conceive a screen story as well as act and produce it. Kathleen O'Conner, a popular Universal serial player is seen in the opposite feminine role.

At the outset of the story, John Merritt formerly a Wyoming rancher, now a beef magnate in Chicago, finds that the ranch of "Cheyenne Harry" Buford interferes with his scheme of territorial empire, and flies to buy the land. When Harry refuses to sell, Merritt tries force. Failing in this he employs a crafty lawyer who succeeds in causing the land to revert to the Merritt estate. Cheated of his birthright Harry journeys to Chicago to meet Merritt and receive justice at his hands. His journey is in vain, and all he brings back from his trip is a memory of his humiliation by Merritt's pretty young daughter, Mary, who has made him the butt of a joke at a dinner party in her home. "Cheyenne Harry" decides to take the law into his own hands to regain what is rightfully his. How he accomplishes this; how he outwits Merritt and his crowd; how he makes his pretty daughter sorry for the insult, and how he finally finds love and happiness are told in the photoplay.

OUR RATES

All advertisements, except display, are charged for at the rate of one-half cent per word for each insertion.

We promptly solicit these advertisements by telephone and expect payment when the collector calls. Ads mailed in should be accompanied by the remittance, as the amount is generally too small to justify bookkeeping.

Cards of Thanks and Obituaries are charged for at the same rate, minimum charge 25c. No charge accounts opened.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS ARE NOT TAKEN AFTER 10:00 A. M. FOR PUBLICATION ON THE SAME DAY.

FARM MACHINERY LASTS LONGER

When Well Protected

Depreciation of machinery stored in the open is due 75% to weather and 25% to use. A dry implement shed prevents metal from rusting, wooden parts from rotting and gives you 100% service from equipment.

One end can be used as a machine shop and a handy enclosure in which to work on rainy days. Overhead room can be used for storing seed, corn, wagon tongues and binder canvas.

You can wash down buggies, automobiles and implements right in the shed, for the sloping, concrete floor drains outside.

See us for estimates of cost of materials and complete working plans of the shed shown above.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pin at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffling, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and sniff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

Can Catarrh Be Cured?

Does It Cause Tuberculosis, Pneumonia, Influenza to be Contracted?

Free Examination and Lecture by Catarrh Specialist.

The medical director of the Indiana Catarrh Institute, 1436 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind., is going to be in this city for one day. He will give privately, a free examination and consultation to everybody that goes to see him, as well as a very interesting and instructive lecture on just what catarrh is; what it will do to a person afflicted with it and give proof that catarrh has been cured and is now being cured every day right in this city.

This expert specialist has spent 17 years in the special study and treatment of chronic Catarrh, has seen thousands of cases and positively pays no attention to any other disease than catarrh. He is at the head of a large institution in Indianapolis, which is devoted exclusively to the treatment of this one disease. He has an entirely new and different system of successfully treating this disease, which he will be glad to demonstrate to all who call on him.

This pleasant and successful system can be used at home, at very small expense, without any loss of time or inconvenience. It works successfully on the worst old cases of catarrh, throat and bronchitis, tubes, chronic cough and bronchitis, dropping mucus in the throat, pains in the chest, shortness of breath, clogged up head and nostrils, head noises and catarrhal deafness, hawking and spitting frequently, severe colds, asthma, hay fever, chronic catarrh of the stomach and bowels and all old "run down" conditions due to catarrh.

Chronic Catarrh is often the forerunner of Tuberculosis, Influenza, Pneumonia and other fatal diseases! Stop wasting time and money on sprays, douches, salves, appliances and the methods of ordinary doctors. Go and consult a real specialist on this disease. It does not put you under obligation in any way. He is glad to advise you freely.

He will be at the Hotel Scanlan, on Wednesday, March 24th, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. (and every twenty-eight days thereafter.)

If it is impossible for you to call on him in person, you should write to find out all about this new system that is curing people. Just address a card or letter to the Indiana Catarrh Institute, 1436 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind.—(Adv.)
